NEWS OF CAMP GLENN

Many Visitors With Boys on Their Annual Outing at Southport.

FOURTH OF JULY EVENTS

Correspondent Takes a "Dig" at the Hash Foundry—Baseball Games and Athletic Sports—Soldier Boys Win.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Camp Glenn, Southport, N. C., July 5.—The guard detail for today were as follows: Officer of the day, Capt. Loughlin; Sergeant of the guard, First Sergeant Fred Russ; Corporal of the guard, Private Quinn Russ. Detail: Reynolds, Beach, Hall and King.

The Fourth was very pleasantly spent in camp and during the day there was a large number of visitors from Wilmington who came down to visit the boys. Among the number were Dr. J. M. Wells, Mrs. Chas. Dushan, Mrs. J. S. Brittain, Mr. and Mrs. James Orrell, Mrs. Robert Presson, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Muse, Misses Nelle King, Annie Ramsey, Hazel Dushan, Genevieve Dushan, Gracie Craig, Katie Fleet, Messrs. J. U. King, Percy Hall, Harry Gardner, C. G. Hall, Lieutenant Francis Garrison, Henry Fick, James Price, John Cooper and H. M. Cornwall.

Privates "Pochanhontas" Smith, "Boufarrah" Wingo and Sergeant McAllister returned to the city today.

The big celebration held jointly by Fort Caswell and Southport was a success in every way and was greatly enjoyed by all who witnessed the events. The ladies of Southport had many beautifully decorated booths on the campus where delicious refreshments were dispensed and during the day the superb post band from the Fort discoursed sweet music. In the afternoon the land events took place in "The Grove" which were principally participated in by the soldiers from Caswell, although some of the Brigade boys entered several of the contests. Frank Brittain took second prize in the 100 yard dash, and Brittain also came in second in the obstacle race. At 5 o'clock the baseball game between Fort Caswell and the S. S. R. team from Wilmington took place. The game provedd to be a one-sided affair the soldiers winning to the tune of 7 to 0, although Uncle Sam's men did not do as well as they should have, they being larger and swifter than the Rattlers. The battery for the Fort was Daniels and McCumber, S. S. R., Brittain and Dosher. Brittain struck out seven men and Daniels, 10. A large crowd witnessed the game and there was rooting galore from beginning to end.

The camp hash foundry was kept pretty busy yesterday and in all there was a little over two hundred meals served by Commissary Sergeant Tilly and his assistants. The menu yesterday consisted of punk, spuds, stick beans, cackles and grunts, Chinaman's delight, Boston brain food, whitewash, brickdust soup. W. B. M.

TO HEAR COMPLAINTS

Corporation Commission at Work on Telephone Rates and Union Depot For Lumberton—A Clerk Appointed.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 6.—The hearing of the complaint on the part of Col. J. Bryan Grimes against the Southern Bell Telephone Co., will be heard on July 17th instead of July 5 as at first appointed. The complaint is in the form of a petition for an order reducing toll fees for long distance service to five cents for the first five minutes and two and one-half cents per minute for all in excess of that time. Also for fixing local charges at $1.50 per month for residence and $2 per month for business phones.

The city treasury of Raleigh has just received $6,600 as the municipality's share of the profits from the dispensary for the three months ending June 30th. The total profits for the three months was $16,000, the remainder going to the county treasury for education and road improvement. For the quarter ending March 31st the city's share of the profits was $6,000 and for the quarter ending June 30th, 1905, $6,600. A steady increase in profits is therefore noticeable.

B. S. Thompson was this afternoon elected to a clerkship in the office of the Corporation Commission to succed G. L. Jones, who resigned to practcie law at Franklin. The salary is $1,200. Thompson is a son of Geo. Thompson, of Raleigh.

The Corporation Commission this afternoon heard argument and testimony in the matter of the petition of citizens of Lumberton for a union depot. A. W. McLean represented the petitioners. Major J. D. Shaw appeared for the Seaboard, Capt. J. M. Turner for the Raleigh and Charleston. Dr. N. A. Thompson and R. D. Caldwell were examined as witnesses for Lumberton. The matter was left open until more testimony can be presented. The Seaboard admits the need for better depot facilities but objects to the expense of a union station. The Raleigh and Charleston objects to being forced to build a depot at this time at all.

Baseball This Afternoon.

If the weather will permit there will be two games of baseball in the City League, at Hilton Park, this afternoon. The first game will be between the Seventh Street Rattlers and the Y. M. C. A., and the second between the Market Street Giants and the Monarchs. The losing teams have pulled themselves together and an interesting exhibition is promised in each instance.

SCOTT PAYS DEATH PENALTY; EXONERATES THE OTHER TWO

Execution in Every Way Successful, Scott Remaining Cool and Collected to the Very Last—Great Crowd in Attendance.

TRAP WAS SPRUNG AT 3:01 O'CLOCK

"DON'T HAVE NO HUMBUGGERY, MR. MARSHAL, MAKE A HOME RUN OF IT," AND THEN "GOOD-BYE TO EVERYBODY" WERE PRISONER'S LAST WORDS—HIS STATEMENT REITRATED OVER AND OVER AGAIN.

HENRY SCOTT, MUTINEER-MURDERER.

Paid Death Penalty in New Hanover County Jail To-Day for His Part in One of the Blackest Crimes Ever Known on the High Seas.

"I'll give you the signal," Mr. Marshal. "Let's don't have no humbuggery. Make a home run of it."

With these words and a farewell shout of 'Good-bye," Henry Scott, self-confessed murderer of five men on the ill-fated Harry A. Berwind, leaped from life unto death at the end of a hangman's rope in the county jail yesterday afternoon a few minutes after 3 o'clock. The trap was sprung by Marshal Dockery personally and the execution was in every way a success.

Scott was dead in a few minutes after the trap was sprung. On the scaffold in a statement signed and sworn to below, he made a full confession of everything exonerating both Adams and Sawyer, though declaring them traitors and deserving to be shot for betraying him in his crime.

The prisoner's nerve was with him to the last. For a few hours before he was led on up to the gallows, he sat in the jail office and gave souvenirs to his friends, the favorite of these being photographs of himself which he placed on his knee and wrote his autograph on the back in a bold, clear hand. He said death had no terrors for him and apparently every word he said was true.

Marshal Dockery had been at the hotel awaiting the arrival of the Carolina Central train to see if Scott's attorney, Mr. Bellamy, would return. But Mr. Bellamy did not arrive and at 2 o'clock he went to the jail and was informed by Scott that he was ready. He retired from the jail office to the jail corridor and a few minutes' religious services were held by the Rev. E. Robert Bennett and other colored ministers in attendance. There he reiterated again and again the confession he had made a few days before and swore to a supplementary statement.

Then to a passage from the order for the burial of the dead from the Episcopal prayer book, read by the Rev. Bennett, the march to the gallows was taken up, Scott following with a perfectly steady tread and manifesting the utmost composure. He came straight to the gallows and stood, having refused the tender of a chair by the Marshal.

When Scott had taken his stand, the Rev. Bennett asked for quiet and after a minute of prayer he stood up and asked permission of the Marshal to read the confession prepared several days ago. Marshal Dockery stood by the trap and nodded assent. He then read the long statement, properly sworn to, and was here and there prompted by Scott who would now and then turn to the crowd saying "Keep Quiet Please."

It was 15 minutes to three when the reading of the statement was completed by the Rev. Bennett. Scott then asked to make a statement. He said: "This is strictly correct," and went into a terrible arraignment of Capt. Rumill and the officers aboard the ship for the treatment of the crew. He said that he had not murdered these men because they were white men, but because of the treatment that was given the crew, accusing the captain of putting salt water in that given to them to save buying more water in Cardenas. He also said that the captain sold the provisions aboard the ship to buy things for himself.

After the statement "Nearer, My God, to Thee," was sung by the hundred or more assembled, Scott joining lustily in the words of the familiar hymn.

Then Rev. Bennett asked for a word of prayer and Scott kneeled on the scaffold, his cap on his knee. When the prayer was over, perfectly cool and collected, Scott gave a letter or two to be disposed of and asked Rev. Bennett to inform his wife and people in Philadelphia that all was well.

He then asked Mr. Dockery as to the disposition of the body and was told that it would be shipped to the University Medical School at Raleigh. "Well, that's all right," he said; don't bury the body. I'd like to be sent to the Jefferson College in Philadelphia, but any way will do," he said.

Then he asked about the rope; gave the Marshal to understand he would give the signal and told him he would prefer to make a "home run of it."

Then he shouted farewell and the trap, with a click, sounded and 19 minutes later Dr. Russell, Dr. J. B. Cranmer and other physicians pro-

WERE READ EAGERLY

Extra Edition of Star Carrying Story of Scott's Confession and Mutiny Evidently a Hit With the Public Yesterday.

The extra edition of The Star issued yesterday afternoon a few minutes before 4 o'clock and within less than an hour after the execution, giving a full and complete story of the hanging of Henry Scott in the county jail, his confession, history of the crime, etc., was second only in importance with the large number of people on the street, to the hanging itself.

In spite of all the haste that was made, the press room was unable to turn out the extras as fast as they were called for in the building and long after night, when the crowd had subsided, there were still requests for copies. An edition of five thousand could hardly satisfy the large number of people who crowded the building to read the news from about 4 o'clock until nightfall. In fact, the crush became so great inside that it was necessary to announce "early in the game" that no more of the issues would be given out in the office, but would be distributed on the streets. But the crowd waited, and it was regretted that arrangements to give the copies a more general circulation all over the city by carriers could not be carried out as planned, for the reason that there were not enough for "home consumption." Much of the same story with the later news is given in this morning's edition when it will be possible for all to have a copy.

Died at the Hospital.

Mr. Washington A. Melvin, Jr., of Harrell's Store, Sampson county, died at the hospital in this city yesterday morning at 5 o'clock, where he had been under treatment for peritonitis. Mr. Melvin was in the thirty-sixth year of his age and was highly esteemed by all who knew him. The remains were sent to Harrell's Store, on the northbound train, last evening.

Mayor's Court Yesterday.

The Mayor had something like a dozen offenders in his court yesterday noon, the most important of the cases having been four against William Simmons, a full-fledged blind tiger, arrested by Officer C. E. Wood. He was bound to the higher court in four cases and in default of $25 bond in each he went to jail.

The Republican Meeting.

In regard to the mass-meeting of Republicans Saturday night, Mr. J. M. Forshee requests the correction be made that he is not the leader of the movement and so far as he knows it is not in the interest of Mr. Blackburn.

MAY DIE OF WOUND

Complications Arisen in Case of Young Mike Bryant Stabbed Thursday Night.

JIM MARINE DENIED BOND

Stabbing in Saloon May Have Fatal Termination—Knife Blade Penetrated Lung and Patient's Condition Critical.

Complications have arisen in the case of young Mike Bryant, who was stabbed in such cowardly manner by Jim Marine in a Castle street saloon Thursday night, and his condition at the James Walker Memorial Hospital, according to last reports, is extremely critical. It is believed now by the physicians in attendance that the blade of the knife thrust into the young man's shoulder penetrated the lung, whereas it was thought at first that, although an ugly one, it was only a superficial wound. Yesterday every symptom developed to show that the knife penetrated the lung and in that event, it is extremely doubtful if the patient's life can be saved. For the greater part of yesterday his condition was regarded extremely critical and up to 12 o'clock last night there had been no change for the better.

Jim Marine, who did the stabbing and was subsequently run down and captured by Mr. W. E. Watson after he had drawn the knife from the wound of young Bryant, is still in the city prison and since the development for the worse in the patient's condition, he has been denied the privilege of bail. He is very much concerned over the case and asked several times last night as to the condition of Bryant. It is said that he has admitted stabbing Bryant before this time but since there is a likelihood that his victim will die, he has made no statement. Marine is a son of the well known diver, Archie Marine, and has a wife and one or two children. His record in the past has been rather bad but lately he seemed to have steered clear of trouble until the stabbing of Bryant.

THE WEEKLY TRAP SHOOT.

Mr. Penny Won Club Medal at Meet Yesterday Afternoon—The Scores.

The regular weekly trap shoot of the Wilmington Gun Club yesterday afternoon brought out a goodly number of members in spite of the threatening weather. The medal was won by Penny in a score of 22 out of a possible 25. Several of the members were calling "fall" at the Rocky Mount tournament.

The scores yesterday were as follows: Harriss, 20, 20, 24, 22; Boushee, 20, 19, 19; Oldenbuttel, 15, 13, 17; Pickard, 16, 15; Empie, 21, 14, 22; Jones, 11; Dreher, 12, 11, 16, 17; Jacobi, 9, 7; Ahrens, 12, 14, 19, 16; Penny, 22, 20, 19; Holmes, 18, 23, 22; Carr, 13; Loder, 14; Bridgers, 9; Howell, 11.

STORY OF THE CRIME BY ADAMS AND SAWYER

Their Version of the Affair Has Differed Little From Their Original Statements When First Taken Ashore at Southport.

All along Adams and Sawyer have told one story of the fearful crime and Scott another. All, however, agreed upon one point—that there had been trouble about the food and water on board. The clearest statement given was by Adams at the preliminary trial and he has stuck to his story ever since being corroborated by Sawyer in every detail.

Adams said: "Myself and Sawyer were in the captain's watch and my watch being out at 4 o'clock in the morning, I went to my bunk to turn in. As I passed the engine room of the schooner I saw the captain firing up the boiler as the vessel was leaking badly and the pumps had to be kept going night and day. I suppose the captain was relieving the engineer, although I don't know for certain. This is the last time I saw the captain, but I heard several shots just after getting into my bunk. At five o'clock in the morning or near five we turn out to get coffee, and as I and Sawyer got up and went to the forecastle door we met Scott, who had a belt around his waist with a pistol in it. Scott said to us 'D—n it! you fellows stay where you are and do what I tell you to do and everything will be all right. If you don't do as I tell you I will kill you, for I am in command of this d—d ship.' We then staid at the forecastle, and pretty soon we heard some more shots. We went on top of the forecastle and pretty soon I said to Sawyer: 'My God look at the chief (the engineer) all washed down in blood! He was standing against the rigging and I could see that he was twisting about. Pretty soon, we saw Scott come up to the chief with a pistol. We could see that the chief was pleading with Scott to spare him and not to throw him overboard. The next thing I saw was Scott going over to the lee side of the vessel carrying the chief in his arms. Then I heard some one calling, calling in the sea far astern, and I suppose it was the chief whom Scott had thrown overboard.

"I hadn't seen the mate at all, but pretty soon we heard other shots, and looking aft saw Scott and the mate scuffling. We saw that Scott was trying to make the mate go overboard, but the mate wouldn't go. We saw them fighting together, and one time Scott nearly had the mate over the rail, but somehow the mate got away and slid down under the deck load. Pretty soon they were fighting again and we thought that maybe Scott didn't have any more bullets in his

CRIME AND ARREST OF NEGRO MUTINEERS

The Story of Capture, Trial, Appeal and Sentence of Three Negroes of Whom Scott Was Regarded as Arch Conspirator.

In the inky blackness of the night of Tuesday, October 10th., last year, a heavy sea running at the time, thirty miles to the eastward of Frying Pan Lightship, off the coast of the Cape Fear, Capt. John W. Taylor, of the New York schooner Blanche H. King, bound from Brunswick, Ga., to New York, sighted the dark outlines of a vessel in the dim distance. Presently there came across the deep the feint glimmer of a red light on the quarter deck, which is a signal of distress at sea, although in this instance it was improperly displayed according to the maritime regulations. The attention of Capt. Taylor was further attracted to the ship by the manner in which the vessel was being steered, indicating the absence of a skilled mariner aboard. He put the Blanche H. King about to come alongside to ascertain the trouble and was twice almost run down himself by the reeling, rocking half-derelict. This was about 9 o'clock. Coming as near as possible, Capt. Taylor ascertained that the vessel in distress was the Philadelphia schooner Harry A. Berwind, Capt. E. B. Rumill, bound from Mobile, Ala., to Philadelphia with cargo of lumber.

Capt. Taylor hailed the Berwind and asked what was the trouble. A reply came back that one man aboard had killed the captain and four men aboard and they wanted to be taken off. Capt. Taylor sent his mate, Theodore Simon, and four men aboard in a yawl and between 11 and 12 o'clock they brought three negro seamen from aboard—Henry Scott, Arthur Adams and Robert Sawyer. The first named was bound hand and foot and the others appeared in mortal terror of him asking the mate of the King to leave. Scott aboard. On the pilot house of the Berwind lay the body of a fourth negro, John Coakley but Capt. Rumill, Jno. T. Hall, the mate; Engineer John Falbe and Steward C. F. Smith, all white, were nowhere in sight. Everything aboard the ship was in disorder and confusion and out of it all and from the mouths of the three negroes, then in irons and the only living witnesses, came the story of the most fearful butchery and savagery in the annals of modern crime on sea or on land. Scott laid the crime to Adams and Sawyer and vice versa, never explaining why he was firmly bound when the officers of the King first reached the ship. Capt. Taylor at once realized the horror of

BETTER PAY FOR TEACHERS.

Quite a number of times the Star has advocated better pay for teachers in North Carolina. We have done so because they deserve it, because they are entitled to it, because they earn it, and for the reason that to pay teachers remunerative prices will give the State a corps of efficient and trained teachers—the best guarantee of a sound and successful system of education. We do not want any shiftless work in the schools of North Carolina, but thorough and effective teaching by professional teachers who will not only work because they are interested in expanding the minds of the children of the State but with the purpose and intention of earning their pay—when it is what they ought to receive. North Carolina needs well equipped teachers—teachers with their heart in their work and ambition to make teaching a profession, but we can get them only by paying the price that talent, training and experience justly deserves. We confess that it is humiliating to us to look back over the pay roll for the North Carolina teachers and we will refuse to boast of any plan of education till from fifty to one hundred per cent is added to the monthly pay of the women and men who are doing more for the State than any class of people in it.

There is every reason why immediate action should be taken to increase the pay of teachers. We consider it an urgent matter and not one to be temporized with. It is business. Much could be said on this subject, but we have only said enough here to lead up to a letter which comes to the State of Washington. It comes from a former North Carolinian, and it is gratifying that he appreciates the efforts of the Star and besides is in a position to say something interesting and helpful in the cause. The letter is as follows:

"Knappton, Wash., June 29, 1906.
"Editor Morning Star, Wilmington, N. C.:

"Dear Sir—In a recent issue of The Star I read with interest your editorial on the false economy of paying the teachers in North Carolina such small salaries. I heartily agree with you in this, and thought perhaps it might interest you to know what teachers in this part of the country receive.

"In Montana recently, I met several teachers from Kansas and Missouri who had come out West to secure positions because they couldn't make more than $45 to $50 in their home States. Such salaries as they received would make the average North Carolina teacher envious, but in Montana they would receive from $60 up. In Portland, Oregon, a teacher starts in at $50 per month, and each year receives a small increase until she is receiving a salary of $65 to $85 per month, and in Astoria, my home town, they do not pay less than $50 to any teacher, and a great many receive from $60 to $90 per month, the principals, of course, receiving more.

In this small saw mill town, where we have only 25 pupils, we pay our teacher $60 per month and school lasts nine months. I would venture the assertion that no State on the Pacific Coast pays such small wages as are paid in North Carolina, and I can speak from experience, as I taught in North Carolina at the princely salary of $35 per month. It is not because the Western people have more money, but because they believe it is a good investment to secure good teachers and make salaries some object for them to remain with the profession. I know of one young lady who came out here from North Carolina where she had taught two years, the first year receiving $30 per month and the next year $35 per month. The first year out here she received $50 per month, and the second year $55. She was elected by the board of directors for the coming year at a still larger salary.

"I have mentioned this simply because I do not think that the people of the 'Old North State' are doing justice to their teachers, and I believe unless they soon realize it, that a good part of the talent in that profession will be leaving the State and seeking employment elsewhere, where their efforts will be more appreciated.

"Yours very truly,

Mr. Morton's letter is a valuable contribution to the subject. It will help out the campaign for better pay for good teachers. Better pay for Good teachers! Better Teachers for good pay!

THE DEMOCRACY AND CONGRESS.

Democratic newspapers and politicians throughout the country are not slow or stinted in their praise of the Roosevelt administration for the good it has accomplished for the country and in behalf of the people. The New York World, a Democratic newspaper thus pays tribute to the administration:

"By relentless prosecution of rich offenders Secretary Hitchcock has all but destroyed the business of stealing government land. The Postoffice Department has pursued Burton until he has been at last driven out of the United States Senate and is in a fair way to go to prison. In the railroad rate matter, in the investigation of the coal roads by the Interstate Commerce Commission, in the investigation of the packing houses, in the preparations for prosecuting the Standard Oil Company, the administration has shown a spirit that is not dismayed by the power of organized capital. The President is actualizing the 'square deal' which makes every man equal before the law. Even Mr. Roosevelt's bitterest opponent could not minimize the healthful influence upon public sentiment of these activities. At a time when a horde of demagogues are trying to convince the American people that there is one law for the rich and another law for the poor, the President is proving that there is only one law for everybody and that the national government knows no distinction in offenders. Such an object-lesson could not be more opportune."

That object lesson could have been secured long ago by the election of a Democratic President and Congress, and it is an object lesson that should make the people see to it that the next occupant of the White House is a Democrat and that the majority of Congress shall be like-minded. The Brooklyn Citizen, a true blue Democratic paper, has something to the point to say of "The Democracy and Congress"—that is how much credit is due to the Democracy for what the recent Congress has done in behalf of the people. In this connection the Democratic leader in the House of Representatives, the Hon. John Sharp Williams, loses little time in informing the country that, if it imagines itself indebted in a special degree to either the Republican party or the occupant of the White House for the recent legislation against Trusts and other iniquities, it is mistaken. Mr. Williams agrees with the President and with Mr. Cannon in several directions, but he differs most decidedly from them in so far as they intimate that for what is good in the record the Republican party should have credit. As Mr. Williams sees the matter, the Republican majority are entitled to little other credit than that which is usually given to politicians who, after fighting against the policies of their opponents, at last adopt them through fear of being beaten at the polls if they refuse.

The Citizen says:

"That there is some truth in this claim is not likely to be denied by any Republican who has much reputation as a statesman to lose. That it was a Democratic cry which the President took up when he committed himself to the movement for the extinction of the special rate system on the railroads is known to every careful reader of the daily press, and the same is true of the war on the abuses of the Meat Trust. It is undeniable that there have been from the very beginning of the raid on the evils in question Republicans of distinction on the side of the people, and to such gentlemen credit of the fullest kind should be given; but a difference still remains between what a few real reformers in the Republican party desired, and what the practical leaders were willing to sanction. The situation was thoroughly understood by President Roosevelt in the early days of the recent session of Congress, when he set about the formation of a compact between the Democrats of the two Houses and the Republican few in each House whom he felt confident would stand by his programme. That things turned out so that the compact could be disregarded, altered in no degree the broad fact that had it not been for readiness of the Democrats to push the reforms in question, with the assistance of the minority element in the Republican camp there would have been no reform worthy of the name accomplished.

"It is to this state of facts that Mr. Williams refers when he says that in so far as Congress has done well, it has acted in harmony with the Democracy and Democratic policies, while in so far as it has either done badly or refrained from good action that should have been taken, it antagonized the Democracy."

At one time it appeared that President Roosevelt would be by himself in his fight for the right, but he proved himself strong enough to get his party in line. To get the whole thing straight, a good old fashioned Democratic victory is needed to clinch the thing.

Don't try to set the pace in being gay.

The Savannah Morning News taxes our credulity. It states that on the 4th of July a negro fell over the fence and "hurt his head."

It is feared that Evelyn Nesbit's appearance on the witness stand will be more dramatic than all her appearances on the stage.

A magazine writer says: "It is nonsense to raise all this fuss about a little peek-a-boo waist." Never touched us. We confine all our fuss-raising to what is in the peek-a-boo.

President Roosevelt found out the temper of the people and came very nearly impressing Congress with what he found out. Swinging around the circle does good sometimes.

Victim Who Was Restored to Manhood and Happiness Say It Does All That Is Claimed For It.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.

I have concluded to write you simply to assure you of my appreciation of the Keeley Treatment, which I took so long ago that I do not remember the year. It was before you moved into your present splendid location, which, by the way, I had the pleasure of visiting some four or five years since. I remember very well every nook and corner of the old place on the corner opposite the court house and the many kindnesses received at the hands of those in charge during my four week's sojourn at the Institute. Then, too, I was very much attached to my daily asociates, noble fellows with whom it was a delight to be thrown. I remember with what misgivings I consented to try the treatment. The matter was under consideration in my home for several weeks, and, after considerable persuasion by friends and loved ones I entered the Institute reluctantly—as a last resort—but with little or no confidence in the Cure; but on and after the 5th day I was convinced there was something in it; and now, at the expiration of some eight or ten years, I glady give the Keeley Cure my unqualified endorsement and recommend it to all slaves of the liquor habit, knowing as I do from experience that it is all that is claimed for it; and I am sure that, when one of your graduates goes to his cups, it is no fault of the cure; but if he is honest with himself he will freely confess that he did so from pure cussedness.

—Boston and Washington have joined the procession of cities providing cold jail storage for the iceman.—Baltimore Sun.

—This is the season when "everybody is out of town"—except a few millions who stay during the summer merely to keep things running.—New York Tribune.

—It is to be hoped that Mrs. Harry Thaw will not find it necessary to carry out her disposition to tell all she knows. Something ought to be left to the imagination.—Charleston Post.

—Oklahoma hasn't yet completed all the preliminaries whereby she becomes one of the sisterhood of States, but evidently will feel quite at home. They lynched a negro out that way for an assault upon a white woman, hanging him and burning his body afterwards. This is a reversal of the usual programme and is more humane, if anything in connection with a lynching is humane. But Oklahoma will be at home when it does come in. —Columbia State.

—To Toledo goes the credit of striking a blow at monopoly which is effective, but a St. Louis judge hits unlawful combinations in a vital point with the decision that, "any purchaser of any article or commodity from any individual, corporation or company transacting business contrary to any provision of the preceding sections of this article shall not be liable for the price or payment of such article or commodity, and shall plead this article as a defense to any suit for such price or payment."—Mobile Register (Dem.).

—Some of the papers of New York, generally those of the yellow variety, are making vigorous and unceasing efforts to influence public opinion in favor of Harry Thaw, the rich young man who deliberately shot and killed Architect Stanford White. They are trying to make it appear that Thaw killed this man in defense of the honor of his wife and are thus appealing to the higher, unwritten law which almost invariably applies in such cases in most parts of the country, especially the South, the statute to the contrary notwithstanding. The trouble about this plea is that Thaw knew of his wife's dishonor before he married her; he knew, or was informed, that White was responsible for her downfall, yet he waited two years before acting and after marrying. —Columbia Record.

TWINKLINGS.

—"Why do you refer to his fortune as hush money?" Wagg—"He made it in soothing syrup."—Philadelphia Record.

—"That man has a very shady business record." "Why, what has he been doing?" "He puts up awnings." —Baltimore American.

—Out of a job, eh? Yeh, De boss said he was losing money on de t'ings I was makin'." "Dat so? Wot was you makin'?" "Mistakes."—Philadelphia Press.

—Stella—Isn't that Mr. Bachelor kind and gentle? Bella—That's just the trouble; he stands without hitching.—Brooklyn Life.

—I—" "Oh!" she cried, "I will tell papa about you. I think I heard him say this morning that he wanted to hire an office boy with just the qualifications you mention."—Judge.

—"There is something," he said, "that I have wanted for a long time to tell you. I am not rich, as you know, but I am young, strong, and willing to work. A STORY OF PROGRESS

Six years ago Geo. O. Gaylord realized that his business had reached the point that presented unusual opportunities of greater growth, and he laid his plans by building and moving into his present store on North Front Street which is a building of 49 feet front and one hundred and twenty-five feet deep and three stories high.

The location at the time was a little out of the trading section and it was generally surmised that his business would go to pieces because it was somewhat out of the range of other merchants. His reputation, however, was too well established. He moved his business to this seemingly out of the way location and with him went the trade.

He had been in business in this town for some ten years before beginning business with comparatively no capital and little or no experience, he has like the acorn now grown to be the oak and spreads the branches of his store over more floor space than any one men's store in North Carolina.

After being in this store for two years we found our floor space not large enough for our business and planned to build and did build another store three stories high with a frontage of 35 feet and a depth of 120 feet.

These twin stores he occupies alone and they are now filled to their utmost capacity.

Not satisfied; he is now planning to build still another additon to his store on a vacant lot in the rear to be 49 feet wide and 67 feet deep.

His business is increasing to such an extent and his departments becoming so cramped that he finds it a necessity to enlarge his store in this way to make room for his stock.

With this great amount of goods there must be represented a good assortment and his many departments are kept up full and complete.

He has a premium department which he has just been called upon to examine into as to the premiums given away within the last two weeks and the amount even surprised him. He cannot tell whether it pays or not, but he feels sure his customers appreciate it because they receive good and useful presents on their purchases while they cost them absolutely nothing.

This business is built up on a solid basis by dealing honestly, fairly and squarely with each and every one.

This store sells values and our merchandise sales grow daily.

This progress is no newspaper story. Look on the front of the big building on Front street and you will find only the name Geo. O. Gaylord on the store. He wants you to become a customer. He has goods to please any one and his assortment is so great than he can suit any one as to price.

In low prices and big values, he absolutely leads.

He keeps all classes of Summer goods and his stock is up to the minute.

Watch his progress. He has not reached the top yet. A few more years will unfold still greater surprises.

COME TO THE BIG DEPARTMENT STORE,

GOE. O. GAYLORD, Proprietor.

SUMMER SUITS

IT'S ABOUT now that all sorts of Summer Suits will be offered at all sorts of prices by all sorts of clothiers. It will certainly be a good idea for every man that cares anything about the kind of Clothes he wears or what he pays for them to keep both his eyes open and his hand on his pocket book until he is sure that he is on the right track. The man who comes here for his suit will surely not GO WRONG, and

He Can Bank on It

THE CONTINUED SUCCESS of our growing business has made it imperative for MR. SOLKY to make a second trip to the Northern Markets to respond to the demands of our customers and while there he closed out the balance of STROUSE & BROS. Summer Stock consisting of FIVE HUNDRED SUITS, COATS AND PANTS. We also have secured 50 dozen Straw Hats in the very latest shapes that we will place on sale Saturday Morning at greatly reduced prices. Nothing but the BEST of merchandise ever comes in or goes out of this store.

THE NEW SUMMER STYLES are now ready in great variety and we take pleasure in showing them. If you are dissatisfied with anything you purchase from us after you get home, you can come right back and GET YOUR MONEY. That's the WAY we do business.

TO THE DEMOCRATS VOTERS TO NEW HANOVER CO.

I take this method of thinking you for the kind support given me in the past, and at same time announce myself a candidate for renomination to the office of County Treasurer, subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

Very respectfully,

july 3-1m* H. McL. GREEN.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—The number of visitors to Western North Carolina resorts breaks all previous records.

H. McK. Twombly, Jr., 18 years old, only son of H. McK. Twombly, the New York capitalist, was drowned yesterday while swimming in Big Squam Lake, Holdgness, N. H.

—Physicians are unable to locate the bullet in the body of Ray Cameron, the young Raleigh boy who was accidentally shot while celebrating the Fourth of July, and grave apprehension is entertained as to his recovery.

Former President Grover Cleveland is ill with asthma at his home in Princeton, N. J. He had to cancel an engagement to go to Wisconsin to take a fish with Eckels, former Comptroller of the Treasury during his administration.

—Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, State geologist, will soon leave Chapel Hill for Western North Carolina to take up his work on copper, beginning first in the counties of Swain and Jackson, and working to the east. F. B. Laney, assistant geologist will be associated with Dr. Pratt in these investigations.

Steamers arriving at New Orleans continue to report cases of yellow fever at Central America and West Indian ports. The steamer Alps which arrived at quarrantine Wednesday night reported that Port Limon, Casto Rica, had two cases of this fever and one death.

—Dr. Richard H. Lewis, secretary to the State Board of Health, has prepared his reports on smallpox the past 12 months. He says it shows somewhat less scope of the disease than during the previous 12 months. The mortality was small. The falling off in the number of cases was not so great as expected.

—As to how the negro rural free delivery mail carrier, Tom. McKoy, is getting along on his route, the Raleigs postoffice officials say that a few persons had removed their letter boxes when McKoy was put on duty, but that most of these had replaced them and that there seemed to be no trouble along the line.

Alfonse Zelaya, son of the President of Nicaragua, was arrested in Washington yesterday and locked in a cell at the first precinct station, on a warrant charging petit larceny. Mr. Zelaya recently was married to a young lady in this city. Later Zelaya was released after furnishing $10 collateral for his appearance in court to-day.

Four men were drowned in St. Johns river at a late hour Wednesday night in attempting to cross the river in a small row boat at Jacksonville. The dead are: James Robinson, Charles Richardson, Adam Hall and Shed Greer, all employes of the were six men in the boat, overloading it and it capsized. John Hall and Babe Sargent were saved.

—At Durham on Tuesday license was issued for the marriage of a couple, the bride being nearly three times the age of her husband. James Brewer is the groom-to-be and his bride is Miss Nancy Jane Cash. The groom gave his age as 25 years and that of the bride 45, but those who know the blushing bride say that she is not less than 65 years. They were married last night.

Henry Meldrum (Republican), former United States surveyor general for the District of Oregon, was sentenced yesterday at Portland to pay a fine of $250 on each of 21 counts and to serve sixty days' imprisonment at hard labor on each of 18 counts in teh Federal penitentiary at McNeil's Island, Washington, for conspiracy to defraud the United States government in connection with land deals in Oregon.

At Nashville, Tenn., yesterday investigation of the alleged tobacro trust began before the Federal grand jury. The allied trust affects the growing of leaf tobarco in Tennessee, Kentucky and other States. So far fifteen witnesses from Tennessee and other States have been summoned to appear before the grand jiry. Among counsel for the government are Henry W. Taft, brother of the Secretary of War; Felix H. Levy and Edwin P. Grosvenor, of New York.

George Vaden, colored, who was shot July 4th at Danville, Va., while in a drunken spree by Special Constable Hairston in a negro suburb, died yesterday. The officer was conveying the prisoner to jail when he brooke loose and when his captor attempted to re-arrest him, advanced on him with a knife in a threatening manner. The officer pulled his pistol and fired twice. Eye-witnesses to the tragedy declare that the shooting was justifiable.

—Durham Special, July 5: Work is going forward on the new macadam road from here to Chapel Hill and, when completed there will be a very fine drive-way from Durham to the State University. This has long been a cherished hope of the people living here and there was a great deal of kicking before the work was finally ordered done. The road will be a fine macadam highway and now the commissioners have given an order for placing a steel bridge across New Hope Creek. This order went to an Atlanta firm and the firm will not only place the steel portion of the structure but will build the abutments and wood work. This bridge is to cost $1,700.

—Greensboro Special to Charlotte Observer, July 5: Now that the State Democratic convention of 1906 has passed into history, public attention is naturally directed to the Republican State convention, which meets in Greensboro next Tuesday. The fight over the State chairmanship waxes warm as the time for the convention approaches. Every inch of ground is being clearly contested. The Observer from time to time has printed the rumor that Z. V. Walser will be the dark horse, and that C. J. Harris is a candidate in the farther west. But the fight is between the Blackburnites and the "organization," and it little matters who the State chairman may be, but the main question will be whether he is a Blackburn or an Adams man. The "organization" claims that it will have three-fourths of the vote, and Congressman Blackburn declares he will sweep the State three to one.

—New York Special to Charlotte Observer: Among the new stars lately risen in the theatrical firmament in New York is a North Carolina girl. In Miss Anna Spencer, a young society girl of Raleigh, N. C., Manager Henry W. Savage thinks he has discovered a phenomenal voice. From the smallest part in "The Student King," in which Raymond Hitchcock will star next winter and which has just closed a preliminary season on the road, she has been promoted in six weeks to the role of understudy to the prima donna, Lena Aberbanell, having been chosen after a trial of the voices of all the girls in "The Student King." Miss Spencer, who is a very pretty blonde, came to New York from Raleigh last year to study for grand opera. In a few months, however, she made up her mind that her real field was comic opera and she applied to Manager Savage for a position. He heard her voice and decided at once to give her the chance which has resulted in such speedy promotion.

—Dr. Pratt, of the State University, announces that the board of geological survey will at once erect a concentrating plant at Chapel Hill. This will be for the purpose of testing the heavy black sands occurring in the gold and monazite placer deposits in the Southern Appalachian mountains. In addition to the gold these placers also contain minerals of economic value, such as magnetite, chromite and garnet. It is possible also that others are found as well. This work will be done with the co-operation of the United States survey, and will be of a kind such as was done at Portland, Ore., during the exposition there, at which time such wonders were developed in the Pacific coast sands, and such successful results were obtained. This plant is already in course of construction and some of the machinery is in transit.

—Asheville Special, July 5: The efforts of relatives and friends of Miss Josephine Hood, who married the bigamist Lord Douglas Cavendish and who has disappeared, to learn the whereabouts of the girl or apprehend the bigamist have thus far proven futile. It was stated to-day that letters had been received from two more women claiming to be wives of Douglas or Cavendish that were not known heretofore. These additional victims give Douglas a total of ten wives. Attorney General Davidson, of Texas, a brother of former Attorney General Theodore F. Davidson, of Asheville, has been requested to interest himself in an effort to locate the girl or the man and if possible to induce the Governor of Texas to offer a reward. It is hoped to have sufficient rewards offered by various States to warrant a thorough hunt for the missing girl and the bigamist by a detective agency. A letter was received here from a travelling man in Butte, Mont., who claims to know something of his wandderings and also something of the manner in which the bigamist treats his wives.

A Tragic Finish.

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great Northern Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIver, of Vanceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflamation caused by a neglected cold; but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life. Guaranteed best cough and cold cure, at all druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

—The North Carolina Field Club, a State organization of special agents of all the leading insurance companies doing business in North Carolina, will hold its anual sessions at Wrightsville Beach, beginning next Tuesday and continuing for three days.

—Mr. J. A. Ellers, while mounting a car of a train that was being shifted on the A. C. L. yards in this city night before last, fell and was severely injured Dr. D. W. Bulluck was summoned and gave the injured man the necessary attention.

—Mr. John Underwood, special agent of the Preferred Accident Insurance Company, was in the city yesterday and turned over to Mrs. Josie Y. Wright a certified check for $5,500, the same being in full for her claim as beneficiary of the late John M. Wright.

—The Clover Club will give its annual excursion to Carolina Beach Tuesday evening and a cordial invitation is extended to all friends of the organization to celebrate the occasion with the members. There will be two boats—at 5:15 and 7:45 P. M.

Sale of Canvas Shoes.

The big department store of Messrs. J. H. Rehder & Co., on Monday will inaugurate its annual sale of white canvas shoes and oxfords. Hundreds of pair of stylish footwear have been provided for this sale and some rare bargains will be offered. In an attractive advertisement in to-morrow morning's paper, some prices will be quoted and the discriminating buyer would do well to look over the list and come to the store early.

SCOTT PAYS DEATH PENALTY; EXONERATES THE OTHER TWO

nounced that death had ensued from a broken neck; that the execution had been a perfect success and that the man was probably unconscious from the moment the drop was complete.

As the trap was sprung, "Nearer My God, to Thee" was being sung at Scott's request. Scott gave the word and was barely audible under the black cap. The rope was adjusted and the black cap placed on the man by Deputy Marshals C. O. Knox, of Wilmington; E. W. Furr, of Whiteville; George R. Bate, of Wilmington; Capt. E. H. Scott and others.

The Confession of Scott.

The two statements read by the Rev. E. R. Bennett from the scaffold were made at different times, but both were sworn to and reiterated verbally by Scott from the scaffold. These statements were read as follows:

Wilmington, N. C.,
New Hanover County Jail,
July 2nd., 1906.

Why I take the ordered time and opportunity to inform the world at large the honest and truthful facts of and into this tragedy—By me, Henry Scott.

The fact is that Sawyer, Adams nor Coakley had nothing to do with the tragic affair whatsoever, rightly speaking. Three days after we left Philadelphia for Cardenas, Cuba, we had trouble on board by Coakley asking for some more to eat, he, Coakley, going to the cook at the galley. The cook referred him (Coakley) to the captain. The captain gruffly told him that we were getting enough to eat, and adding that we were bound for Cuba. Well, that started the trouble from then on. The next trouble started with Sawyer and the cook one Sunday about water, and the cook accused him, Sawyer, of taking five buckets of water. To this Sawyer said it was a lie. The cook called him a black s— of a b—. Sawyer called him a white one and they were going to fight, but did not. I, Scott, had some trouble with the captain at the wheel, but that all blew over. We were getting our allowance according to the provision scale and then the captain told the cook not to cook it for us, and that was another trouble away out at sea. We were getting two buckets of water for four men and out of that we had to cook, eat, drink and wash every twenty-four hours, and to make it a little more hellish, as it is a down east trick, he (the captain) put salt water into the fresh just for meanness, so that we could not drink it and so, too, that he would not have to buy much or any water in Cuba. Why, of course, he had fresh water for himself and officers, all right. When we got down to the Bahamas he partly sold off one-third of the ship's stores to these people there for little or nothing, such as money, cocoanut shells, sponges and bananas. The captain gave away fully half of the can goods we had on board, but strange to say that he (Capt. Rumill(could not give us any more to eat when Coakley asked him, but he could sell and give away. I want to show to the world that this is a pretty fine way to start trouble on a ship when trouble is nigh and all ready. Anyway, we went to Cuba. We worked hungry and thirsty in all of that hot sun until we got the coal out, and went on to Mobile. The name of that schooner instead of the Berwind was the Hell-on-Sea, that's all. When we got to Mobile we loaded with lumber for Philadelphia, and whilst in Mobile I, Scott, had to board with my uncle, and dined out with different friends until we left Mobile. Both the mate and the cook got drunk and I, with the engineer, had to cook for ourselves and the captain. We also had to do the mate's and our work while they were in jail. The captain worked us just like he felt like doing and if any one was about to say anything the talk was of putting us in jail and of shooting. On the 25th. of September we set sail for home and after we sailed both the engineer and the mate got mad with me. Mind, these two officers were the very best friends I had on board from the time we left home, but things had changed greatly, indeed. To the day of the tragedy the mate and the engineer told me that the captain had concocted with the three of them, that is the mate, engineer and cook, to tackle one of us forward and as they knew that we would fight the three would place us under arrest—the four colored—and as the vessel had the steam they could take her into port and swear that we had refused duty, or in other words mutinied, and then jail us and make us lose all of our wages for spite or revenge. Now all of this was to happen when the schooner got up to Cape Hatteras and the only man that heard this besides me was Coakley, when the engineer was telling it to me and so was the mate. Coakley was the only one who saw me when I threw the captain overboard. Coakley saw all of the affair from start to finish. The truth is that the trouble did not start about any coffee. Neither did Adams, Sawyer and Coakley buy pistols in Mobile. All of that was my defense against them and too about the boat. That was what I was going to work to evade the law. But these three men spoiled my business.

This is how the tragedy started. On the morning of the tenth of October, 1905, Sawyer called up me and Coakley. We dressed and came on deck. Coakley went to relieve Adams at the wheel, and I, Scott, relieved Sawyer on the look out. The fact is that Sawyer and Adams were below when relieved—in the forecastle. Presently the mate called me and told me to saw some wood for the engineer. It was dark, so I asked the mate if he couldn't let the wood be until after coffee. The engineer spoke up by saying that if he was mate, he would make me saw the wood or punch me. So I said to the engineer, "Instead of punching the mate, to punch me; why don't you punch me yourself?" Before the last word was out of my mouth, he (the engiener), let drive at me. Both of us were fighting and the mate interfered by drawing his revolver and helping the engineer, while the cook, who was standing in the galley, ran to the rescue of the officers with his hatchet in one hand and revolver in the other. I was gaining the day when the cook sailed in. That was about 4:30 A. M. Even then I was winning from all of them. When the mate fired one shot from his revolver at me but missed me. When I drew my revolver, I promptly shot the three of them, and down the galley they went. The captain was down in the cabin watching the whole scheme that he (Rumill) had concocted and which I had battered all up and generally beaten. When I saw the captain coming up, before he had any time to shoot me, I shot him twice and down the cabin he went and I behind him. The captain and the cook were killed by me; also the mate and the engineer. The only man who saw when I threw the captain overboard was Coakley.

I give the honorable young Mr. William J. Bellamy the highest praise for his power towards my defense which he is entitled to and also the Rt. Rev. E. Robert Bennett for his kind treatment.

HENRY SCOTT.

Sworn to before me, G. W. Bornemann, justice of the peace of New Hanover county, State of North Carolina, United States of the America by Henry Scott, this the 6th day of July A. D., 1906, in the presence of witnesses below named.

E. Robert Bennett, B. D.

FULL STATEMENT.

Wilmington, N. C.,
New Hanover County Jail,
June 30, 1906.

This will be a full statement written by me, Henry Scott, of the real facts into this tragedy, with Godly trust on this lovely morn in June, to the world at large, I am not shielding Sawyer and Adams, nor tryin to save them the said Robert Sawyer and Arthur Adams. I am independently tellin or turnin loose to the commonwealth, as they, not more or less, but strictly and truthfully represented the commonwealth. Therefore, I have the right in my stead to hang them both as deliberate traitors and scoundrels by lyin to me after the tragedy; that is by holding and placing me, Henry Scott, under arrest after I had told them not to do it. I told both, or the three of them, Sawyer, Adams and Coakley, that if I, or we, could not evade the law that I would tell the truth and let you fellows go, and stand by my punishment as a man according to the law. To which they answered in the affirmative and they promptly violated this law of promise to me. Therefore, after they became a part of the commonwealth, I implicated both of them and even Coakley, and I, Henry Scott, was going to hang Messrs. Adams and Sawyer, so to speak, and not the commonwealth. If the commonwealth hangs Sawyer and Adams it will be deliberate murder. That's all. I release Sawyer and Adams to the great community in general to save the Christian body, both white and colored especialy, to which I Scott, take great honor on them to bestow. If they do not appreciate it I, Scott, cannot help it. But still I think it is but few who won't appreciate it. As a fallen Christian and though the World is against me I am doing my duty at the last hour on Earth. There are a plenty who want me to hang these two innocent men, but if I do not want to do it how dare any one remonstrate, but me, Henry Scott. I stand before the world now as a murderer and as I have Sawyer and Adams where I want them I can hang or release them to the world. That's all, of course. If I didn't want to hang Sawyer I could not dare hang Adams. My conscience wouldn't let me. So I turn Sawyer just as free to the world as I do Adams. Therefore, I will conclude with the release by saying to the commonwealth that I, Henry Scott, release to the world as two innocent men, Arthur Adams and Robert Sawyer, to the date of this reading to the commonwealth. The commonwealth can do just what it likes with them. The burden is strictly off my hands. Now God bless all on Earth.

HENRY SCOTT.

Notes of the Execution.

The trap, rope, etc., had been thoroughly tested by Marshal Dockery, Jailer Ed. Capps and the deputies named. The Marshal's management of the execution was highly commendable in every way. It went through without the slightest hitch from beginning to end. Jailer Ed. Capps was of great assistance to the Marshal and his deputies and one of the last words by Scott was thanks to the young jailer for the kindness and consideration shown the prisoner.

Constable "Tuck" Savage was also on hand assisting with matters and he, too, was profusely thanked by Scott for his kindness and consideration.

Deputy Sheriff Harvey Cox was assigned the difficult role of doorkeeper and the admission to the jail by the tickets given out to those entitled to see the hanging by the Marshal. Mr. Cox had a crush at the door but he managed everything perfectly.

The crowd about the jail numbered several thousands and was composed largely of colored people, all well behaved and gathered largely through curiosity only. Many of them remained about the jail until the body was taken down and brought out in a coffin and shipped by Funeral Director James F. Woolvin on yesterday evening's train to the Medical School at Raleigh, where it will be used for dissection purposes. It will be preserved in chemicals until the Fall term of the school opens.

Some of the souvenirs given out by Scott aside from the pictures were a coat to Constable Savage; a copy of his reprieve from the President to Rev. E. R. Bennett. He had about disposed of all of his earthly belongings when he discovered that he had failed to remember the Marshal. To Mr. Dockery he gave an ordinary cedar pencil with which he had written his confession. He asked the Marshal to keep that to remember him by.

Upon the strength of the confession of Scott, Messrs. George Rountree and George L. Peschau, attorneys for Adams and Sawyer, have already take nsteps through the proper channels to have the President grant an unconditional pardon to their clients. They say it was upon Scott's testimony that the men were convicted at all and that this being now nullified they do not anticipate any serious trouble in securing the pardon. At any rate it is expected that the prisoners will not receive more than a long term in the Federal prison. Mr. Meares Harriss, an expert stenographer, was present at the execution yesterday to take down verbatim any statement that might be made by Scott affecting the case of the clients of Messrs Rountree and Peschau.

Adams and Sawyer did not witness the hanging yesterday though their cell was right under the gallows from which the hanging took place. They had been removed for the time being to a cell toward the front of the jail on the second floor. The confession of Scott was read to them by Rev. E. R. Bennett after the execution and they were overjoyed at the turn affairs had taken and largely gave credit to Rev. Bennett. And properly so, for it was through the instrumentality of the minister that the confession was secured and the full circumstances brought out as indicated.

Mr. Bellamy, who made such strenuous effort in behalf of his client and who was all but successful, returned last evening on the 6 o'clock train, having found it impossible to reach here sooner as he had expected. He expresses himself as pleased with the turn affairs had taken and has the consciousness of duty well performed.

While at Oyster Bay, Mr. Bellamy saw the President personally but the whole matter was referred to Mr. Loeb and it was through him that the attorney secured an audience with the Department at Washington.

As intimated in his letter last week while Scott stood on the gallows yesterday, he said that he composed a little song for the young people and would sing it then but there had been so much talk of his being an infidel that he was afraid his singing would be misconstrued. He, therefore, desisted.

Scott slept well the night before the hanging, got up yesterday morning at 5 A. M. and ate a hearty breakfast of ham and eggs. His nerve has never forsaken him from the first. On the day before the execution his beard was clipped closely by J. O. Joyner, one of the barbers from Brown & Pearson's shop, on Princess street. Though he had wasted away to almost a skeleton under the confinement his physical condition otherwise seemed to have been first class. He asked for a copy of the Washington Post and asked to say good bye to Adams and Sawyer.

Scott seemed to have a terror of having his body buried and one of his last acts was to deliver a letter to Mr. Dockery asking that the body be turned over to Jefferson College in Philadelphia. He had already been told, since writing the letter, however, that the remains would be sent to Raleigh and expressed himself as very well pleased with that disposition.

MRS. HARRY K. THAW FRIENDLY WITH WHITE

The use of the electric machine was discontinued at that time, he says, because of the persistent following of the cab by men riding bicycles, on foot and also in hansoms, runabouts and automobiles.

"In those nine months," says Burns, "taking out the time Mr. White was in Europe and Canada, my employer never once entered the electric hansom in the company of a woman other than Mrs. White, whom he frequently took to Sherry's for dinner. The first time I ever saw the present Mrs. Thaw was in February between 12 and 1 o'clock in the morning, standing with a company of men and women on the sidewalk in front of Rector's. Mr. White escorted her to the machine and put her in, saying to me, 'Take this lady home and then come right back for me.'

"The second time Miss Nesbit rode in Mr. White's cab was in the latter part of September, after his return from Europe. I had gone to Rector's to get him from a dinner. He came out on the sidewalk with three men besides himself and two women, one of whom was Miss Nesbit. 'Take these two women home, Johnnie,' he said to me."

Former Judge Olcott, after reading the statement given out to-day by Chauffeur Burns, said he wished to deny absolutely that Mrs. Thaw since her marriage had been a guest of White and had used his automobile.

"There isn't one chance in a million of its being true," said Judge Olcott.

Assistant District Attorney Garvan said that although he had examined Burns in connection with his investigation of the Thaw-White tragedy, he never had heard of Mrs. Thaw's rides in White's automobile until to-day. Burns told him nothing whatever during the examination concerning White having entertained Mrs. Thaw, he said.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL.

Health is Worth Saving and Some Wilmington People Know How to Save It.

Many Wilmington people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is the statement of a Wilmington citizen who has reclaimed good health by the use of this remedy:

J. E. Bloodworth, residing at 30 South Front street, and employed at 123 Princess street, says: "I used Doan'sKidney Pills and they have proven to be a very valuable remeddy and I believe I am safe in recommending them. My back and kidneys have given me great trouble. I thought I had rheumatism. I had shooting pains through my back and sides which often made me yell right out. If I stood, sat or lay down or kept in one position for any length of time it was almost impossible for me to move on account of the great pain. I heard some one speak of Doan's Kidney Pills and I sent down to Bellamy's drug store and got a box. They are without doubt a valuable remedy for backache."

People who have tried Electric Fans appreciate them and you cannot buy them from them but you can buy them from us. We have lots of them but the factories say we cannot get any bore because they can't make them fast enough. You had better get one or more now while you can. Don't you think so?
We do wiring pretty well too; at least we don't know of a dissatisfied customer. And our prices are right, that's the most interesting part.

the situation, put all three men in irons and confined them in the lazaretto of his ship, leaving a crew aboard the ill-fated Berwind and instructing the mate to steer her straight behind the King and into Southport. Coming off the bar both vessels were towed in by the steam tug Blanche and the prisoners turned over to the United States authorities. The body of the dead seaman found on the cabin was taken in charge and buried by the county of Brunswick. Sawyer and Adams secured the services of George L. Peschau, Esq., to defend them and the preliminary trial was at once given with the result that all three were held for trial in the Federal Court here twenty days later. In a few days they were brought to Wilmington under heavy guard and closely confined in jail.

The trial coming on, every interest of the prisoners was safeguarded and if ever fair trials were given, it was in the cases of these men. Adams and Sawyer were first tried and all the circumstances were fully brought out as far as human ingenuity could bring out the true facts. Adams and Sawyer were convicted and sentenced to be hanged the 26th day of last January. Then an appeal was taken and a stay of execution resulted until they were recently re-sentenced by Judge Purnell to be executed in August, their appeal availing them naught. Mr. George Rountree was associated with Mr. Peschau in the appeal and the case was brought in its most favorable light to the attention of the highest tribunal in the land.

The trial of Henry Scott followed and by appointment of the court he was brilliantly defended by William J. Bellamy, Esq., whose speech to the jury in behalf of his client upon this occasion is still a matter of favorable comment in court circles. After what seemed a hopeless division of 48 hours, a verdict of guilty was finally returned and Scott, too, was sentenced to die on January 26th. But it being largely upon the testimony of Scott that the other two men were convicted, his life was spared in case a new trial should be granted the other two. Under a reprieve from the President of the United States, the execution of Scott was postponed until July 6th. No new trial having been granted Adams and Sawyer there was nothing in the way of the execution as it has just taken place. It was only at the last that Scott weakened toward the men now in jail and his manner was stoical all through until a few days before the execution.

The faithful efforts of Mr. Bellamy in behalf of his client, his long trip to Oyster Bay, his appeal to the President, his application to the Department of Justice yesterday, are all matters of too recent history to need review here. Mr. Bellamy has been faithful to Scott to the end and Scott has appreciated his kindly interest which has thus far been without money and without price. Scott's sole concern his last few days was solely for Mr. Bellamy. No request that Mr. Bellamy would make of Scott would have been refused.

And, too, there is another who was faithful to the prisoner to the end—ministering to his spiritual as well as his material needs. Reference is made to Rev. E. R. Bennett, rector of St. Mark's Protestant Episcopal church, colored. Rev Bennett has been constantly with the prisoner and out of his own pocket has contributed much to the prisoner's well being during his last days on earth. The final contrition of Scott, his unbending at the last and his profession of faith have been the work of a good man well directed, sympathetic, tender and true to his fellow man.

pistol and Sawyer said to me: 'I am going aft to help the mate; and he started, calling, 'Scott! Scott!' Scott looked at him and said: 'D—n you, if you come here I will shoot you! He raised his pistol and shot at Sawyer, but missed him. We heard the mate calling to Sawyer: 'For God's sake help me Sawyer.' Then we saw Scott raise his pistol. The mate had his hands up begging Scott not to shoot him. Scott fired twice and the mate fell. Scott threw him overboard. Scott came back forward to us and told us to clew up the main-topsail. We did this. A little while after this I saw Scott go down into the galley. I heard two shots fired, then four more. Then I didn't see Scott come out of the galley for some time. When he did, I saw that he had the steward in his arms. The steward was a very small white man. I watched Scott go over to the rail and throw the steward's body into the ocean. All this time the other colored man Cokely (the last man shot by Scott) was at the wheel. We told him that unless we could creep up on Scott and throw him down he would kill us. Cokely said he thought so too. I went forward and late in the evening I heard somebody call, 'Adams! Adams!' and running aft I saw that Sawyer had thrown Scott down and was on top of him. We got some rope and tied his hands together and chained his feet together and put him on some canvas on the deck. We took a pistol from him and searched him. Cokely was stering and I went into the rigging as I thought I saw a light on a steamer. In a little while I heard a shot, and going down out of the rigging I heard Cokely holler: 'My God! he's shot me, he's shot me;' and I found him lying across Scott, and Scott had a pistol in his hands. We took it away from him and bound him up tighter. We then got a red signal light and commenced to signal the steamer, as it was then dark, but she didn't notice us. Then I saw another light and commenced to signal again. The schooner Blanche H. King then came up to us, and I hollered to them to take us off."

"Especially the BUFFALO LITHIA WATER of Virginia."

For Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, Renal Calculi, Gout, Rheumatism and All Diseases Dependent Upon a Uric Acid Diathesis.

Samuel O. L. Potter, A. M., M. D., M. R. C. P., London, Professor of the Principles and Practice of Medicine and Clinical Medicine in the College of Physicians and Surgeons of San Francisco, Cal., in his "Hand-Book of Materia Medica, Pharmacy and Therapeutics," in the citation of remedies under the head of "Chronic Bright's Disease," says: "Mineral waters, especially the BUFFALO LITHIA WATER of Virginia, has many advocates." Also, under "Albuminuria," he says: "BUFFALO LITHIA WATER is highly recommended."

George Halsted Boyland, A. M., M. D., of Paris, Doctor of Medicine, of the Faculty of Paris, in the New York Medical Journal, August 22, 1896, says: "There is no remedy as absolutely specific in all forms of Albuminuria and Bright's Disease, whether acute or chronic, as BUFFALO LITHIA WATER, Spring No. 2, accompanied by a milk diet. In all cases of pregnancy, where albumin is found in the urine, as late as the last week before confinement, if this water and a milk diet are prescribed, the albumin disappears rapidly from the urine and the patient has a positive guarantee against puerperal convulsions."

T. Griswold Comstock, A.M., M.D., of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I have often prescribed BUFFALO LITHIA WATER in Gouty and Rheumatic conditions and in Renal Calculi, accompanied by Renal Colic, and always with the most satisfactory results. In Renal Calculi, where there is an excess of Uric Acid, it is especially efficacious."

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, July 6.—The cotton market was quiet again to-day, but there was a little more business than yesterday, and prices ruled steady on covering for over the week end. The close was quiet and steady at an advance of 1 to 3 points, with sales for the day estimated at about 75,000 bales. The opening was steady at a decline of one point to an advance of two points and the market steadied up right after the opening on covering by local shorts and a little buying through wire and commercial houses, which was promoted by firm cables, the relative firmness of the spot markets and the absence of aggressive pressure. After selling up to a net advance of 6 to 7 points on the active months the market turned irregular and lost part of the gain in the late trading as a result of realizing. Weather reports were considered favorable. There was some talk that rain was needed in the Southwest, but late reports indicated showers in that section of the country.

Receipts cotton at ports to-day estimated, 4,633 bales against 4,287 last week and 14,812 last year. For the week 25,000 bales against 30,625 last week and 62,549 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans 1,015 bales against 1,393 last year, and at Houston 233 bales against 2,407 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplands 10.80; middling gulf 11.05; sales 3,675 bales. Futures closed quiet and steady. Prices follow:

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE

Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality; causing itching scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

FIGHTING BEGUN IN SAN DOMINGO

Government Forces Have Attacked Rebels But Success is Not Promising.

INSURGENTS ARE DEFIANT

Reject Overtures of Government for Peace—Refuse to Give Up Town Which They Captured—Marines May Be Landed.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, July 6.—A cablegram received at the Navy Department today from Commander Southerland, in charge of American naval forces in Dominican waters, was as follows:

"The government leaders have attacked the rebels, but are being met by guerilla tactics and the prospects are that if these tactics are continued the government forces will be worn out. The leaders of the old revolutionary movement are endeavoring to return to the country."

Advices received earlier in the day from Commander Southerland relative to the status of tne revolutionary movement in the northern part of Santo Domingo were as follows:

"A representative of the government is now in Monte Christi conferring with leaders of the rebellious forces there in the effort to affect a peaceable settlement of the difficulty, but so far without success. The rebel leaders insist on retaining absolute control of the city and province of Monte Christi; the government absolutely rejects these terms and orders have come from President Caceres to attack the rebels immediately. The government force is made up of about 300 men enrolled in Monte Christi and as many more brought from the interior, making a total of 600 soldiers who are about to attack the rebel force of 500 men. The government also has a gunboat at Monte Christi ready to assist the soldiers in the attack."

In case there is a conflict between the antagonistic forces in the island of Santo Domingo, it is the duty of the United States, according to a high official, to see that "the Marquis of Queensberry rules" are observed.

The inference is that the United States government will not interfere unless the interests which this government, under the existing modus, feels bound to protect, are disturbed. It is evidently the belief of officials here that hostilities cannot proceed far without making necessary the landing of marines from the American warships to see that none of the agreements which have been made with the Santo Domingo government are violated.

FIRE AT CEDAR CREEK.

Large Warehouse Belonging to Mr. H. B. Downing Totally Destroyed.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Cedar Creek, N. C., July 4.—A large warehouse belonging to H. B. Downing containing grain, hardware, salt and general merchandise, was struck by lightning on July 3rd, about one o'clock in the afternoon and very quickly the building, with all the contents, were entirely consumed.

By faithful and energetic work of the many friends and neighbors, who quickly came to the rescue, a warehouse and his large store were saved from the flames.

The building and contents were partially insured.

REIGN OF TERROR FRIGHTS POLICE

Anarchists in Warsaw Continue to Assassinate Men on Their Beats.

FORCE IS PANIC STRICKEN

Will Resign Rather Than Be Exterminated by Terrorists—Men Will Be Punished for Showing White Feather—Printers Riot.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

St. Petersburg, July 6.—Rioting occurred today among the employes of the government printing office, where the plates for the paper currency are engraved and printed. The men left their work and went into the court yard of the building singing the "Marseillaise." Gendarmes and Cossacks were summoned and drove back the demonstrators into the building, where after some parleying they returned to work.

Interior Minister Stolypin has removed General Kouloff, the governor of Minsk. General Kourloff was held to be responsible for the anti-Jewish excesses at Minsk in November last and M. Arakantseff in the lower house of the Russian Parliament, urged that he be tried upon that charge. The higher Russian authorities decided not be prosecute the general. On June 19 General Kourloff was thanked by a delegation of Jews for measures instituted by him to prevent another threatened outbreak at Minsk.

Reign of Terror in Warsaw.

Warsaw, Russian Poland, July 6.—The reign of crime and terrorism is so great here that the police have decided to resign. A few days ago, as a measure of protection against assassination by the revolutionists, the system of police beats was abandoned and the police were formed into patrols for mutual self protection against bomb throwing, etc. But this only made it easier for the terrorists to shoot them. The governor general when apprised of the decision of the police to resign, threatened to arrest and punish those who failed to appear for duty.

FOUR KILLED, SIX INJURED.

Terrible Result of Explosion of Tank of Gasolene.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Saginaw, Mich., July 6.—Four persons were killed and six more injured, two of them seriously, by the explosion to-day of a large gasoline tank on the second floor of the boiler house of the Cosendai Dye Works, on North Jefferson avenue. The dead are E. A. Foehl, Louis Cosendai, Carl Cosendai and George Sijelko.

The injured are John F. Cosendai, proprietor of the dye works, fatally burned; Earl Norris, burned about head, feet and arms, condition not serious; Marc Cosendai, arm broken; Frances Gutke, injured; Rufus Newman and his sister, Hattie, were slightly burned by the fire which broke out immediately after the explosion. The tank of gasolene exploded without an instant's warning and the boiler house was torn to pieces.

The explosion wrecked all of the glass in buildings in the block in which the dye works was situated and the fire spread immediately to the Sherna House barn, where it caused $5,000 damage. The loss due to broken glass is estimated at about $4,000. The total loss is estimated at $30,000.

SUGAR TRUST CASES DISMISSED

Some of Indictments Would Not Hold in New York Circuit Court.

OTHER CASES WILL STAND

Sugar Refiners and Railroads Were Prosecuted For Violating Anti-Rebate Law—Charged With Conspiracy.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, July 6.—Judge Holt in the United States Circuit Court today handed down an opinion, the effect of which is to dismiss the indictments found against Nathan Guilford, vice president, and F. S. Pomeroy, traffic manager of the New York Central Railroad, and C. Goodloe Edgar and Edwin Earle, the latter sugar merchants of Detroit, charging them with conspiracy to violate the provisions of the Elkins rebating act, punishable by imprisonment. The court, however, also holds that the indictments against the New York Central Road, Guilford and Pomeroy, found under the Elkins act, are good, in sustaining the demurrer to the conspiracy indictments and dismissing the demurrer to the other indictments, the court holds that Congress did not intend violations of the Elkins law to be punishable by imprisonment. Judge Holt further holds that the amendment to the Elkins act, providing a punishment by imprisonment was not retroactive and therefore could not include the men charged with conspiracy.

The American Sugar Refining Company jointly inicted with the New York Central, pleaded not guilty but interposed no demurrers to the indictment, preferring evidently, to stand trial under the indictments as returned.

"The public," said United States District Attorney Stimson, commenting on the decision, "must not misunderstand Judge Holt's decision. The government charges the defendants with two distinct crimes; one for conspiring to commit an offense against the government and the second for the actual commission of that offense. The conspiracy indictment was returned under a Federal enactment entirely separate and distinct from the Elkins act. By this decision Judge Holt merely holds that Congress did not intend a violation of the Elkins Act should be punished with imprisonment, and throws out that indictment. The indictments returned under the Elkins Act are sustained in their entirety by Judge Holt and we shall proceed to try the accused forthwith or as soon as possible. Judge Holt's decision only affects the form of punishment to be administered if the accused are found guilty and in no way changes the main issues of the case."

CIGARETTES ARE NOT DRUGGED.

Allen & Ginter's Manager Denies Statement of Gaston.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Richmond, Va., July 6.—E. Victor Williams, local manaer of the Allen & Ginter branch of the American Tobacco Company, in an interview tonight denied in the most absolute terms the statement of E. P. Gaston before a committee of the British House of Lords that American cigarettes are drugged and manufactured under filthy conditions.

LUCKY RESCUE OF AERONAUT

Air Ship Was Carried Out to Sea Nearly Hundred Miles.

PICKED UP BY FISHING BOAT

Daring Balloonist Went Up From Providence July 4th and Sailed 200 Miles, Half of Which Was Over Water.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Boston, Mass., July 6.—After one of the most remarkable experience in the history of aereal navigation, James K. Allen the aeronaut who made a balloon ascension at Providence on the 4th of July, was brought to this port to-night on the fishing schooner Francis V. Sylia. Allen was picked up at sea seven miles off Chatham at 7:30 yesterday morning 18 1-2 hours after his departure from Providence.

Allen had a narrow escape from death by drowning, the winds that prevailed Wednesday having blown his balloon a long distance from shore. Until news of his arrival here became known it had been thought that he had met his death as it was known the last time he was sighted on Wednesday evening he was travelling out to sea. When Thursday dawned without any news being received from Allen and it became known that the last time he was seen was when he was on the ocean shore headed out to sea it was then believed that he would never return.

After Allen passed over Massachusetts Bay, his plight was more perilous. Wednesday night he was over Provincetown. At this point of the voyage the wind shifted from southwest to northeast and from Provincetown the balloon sailed down the outer Cape coast. At 7:30 the aeronaut was rescued twelve miles off Chatham by the fishermen of the Sylvia. The balloon was saved in good condition and brought to Boston on the schooner During his flight Allen covered a total distance of about 200 miles, nearly half of which was over the water. The point where he was picked up is about 77 miles from Providence in a direct line.

That Allen is alive tonight is due wholly to a fortunate shift of the wind. When he made his ascension at Providence on Wednesday the wind was blowing a brisk breeze from the southwest. The aeronaut was carried in his balloon in a northeasterly direction and passed over the town of Attleboro. He had his balloon under perfect control at that time and while in the vicinity of Attleboro he descended twice.

From Attleboro the airfhip travelled in the direction of Brockton and the last seen of aeronaut by observers on shore was when he passed Scituate early in the evening. At that time the balloon was headed straight out to sea.

MRS. HARRY K. THAW FRIENDLY WITH WHITE

Sent Home from Restaurant Twice in His Electric Cab, Once Since Her Marriage—Story Absolutely Denied by Her.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, July 6.—The widow of Stanford White was paid to-day by the Equitable Life Assurance Society $149,040, which was the value of a single policy Mr. White had carried on his life for a number of years.

There are several policies for comparatively small amounts issued by the Equitable on the life of Mr. White, on which no claim for payment has yet been presented. The face value of these policies is about $65,000, but their value to the beneficiaries is $50,000. When Mr. White took out these policies his physical condition was not perfect, and the contract he made with the Equitable provided that if death occurred within a certain period a deduction should be made.

Sensational Statement.

New York, July 6.—Dr. Allan McLane Hamilton, the alienist who has been retained by the defense, spent nearly two hours with Thaw to-day. Upon leaving the prison he said that he had examined Thaw at the request of counsel for the defense. He would say nothing, however, regarding the result of the examination.

Mrs. Harry K. Thaw's daily visit to her husband in the Tombs prison was very brief to-day. She remained scarcely more than ten minutes in the prison and after leaving there went to the offices of her husband's attorneys.

That Mrs. Thaw and Stanford White were on friendly terms up to last September is the assertion made in a signed statement given out to-day by John Burns, who was employed by White as a chauffeur. Burns says in his statement that on two occasions, one in February and again in September, 1905, the electric cab which he drove was placed at Mrs. Thaw's disposal by White. The first of these occasions was before her marriage; the second was five months after it. In each instance, according to the chauffeur, she was taken from a restaurant to her hotel and in neither case did White accompany her.

Burns says that he was engaged by White in the latter part of January, 1905, to drive his electric cab between the hours of 5 P. M. and 3 A. M., and continued in his employ until the latter part of September of that year.

ANARCHIST TRAILED IN TWO CONTINENTS

August Rosenberg, of Seattle, Captured in Germany. Believed That He Left America to Assassinate Emperor William.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Altona, Prussia, July 6.—It became known to-day that Auust Rosenberg, an alleged anarchist from Seattle, Wash., was arrested here Tuesday, July 3, as he was leaving a train arriving at Altona. Acting on information received from the police of New York the authorities were watching for Rosenberg, who has relatives here. Rosenberg, who was accompanied by his wife, came to Europe on the Hamburg-American Line steamer Patricia, which left New York June 16 and arrived at Hamburg June 29. The prisoner affirms that he is an American citizen. His baggage has been forwarded to another part of Germany and has not yet been searched by the police.

Overwhelming Suspicious.

Berlin, July 6.—Rueue Hamberger Zeitung says that the chief of police of Altona and Privy Councillor Rosenhagen are inquiring into the case of August Rosenberg, recently arrested at Altona, who is strongly suspected of having planned an attempt on Emperor William's life. It is added that there are numerous, overwhelming causes for suspicion and it is believed that only the man's arrest prevented the attempt. No bombs or explosives were found on Rosenberg, who denies having participated in any plot. Cable messages are continually being exchanged between the Altona and New York police authorities.

Plant for Making Bombs.

New York, July 6.—A dispatch from Seattle on July 3 reported that the police of that city, acting at the instance of the German government, had raided the house formerly occupied by August Rosenberg, a bricklayer, and had found a plant for making bombs and infernal machines.

Rosenberg left Seattle for Hamburg, Germany, on May 1. At that time the German government received a warning from Seattle that an attempt would be made to assassinate the German Emperor. The German consul at Seattle subsequently received a cablegram from Hamburg instructing him to investigate. The articles seized included more than 200 bottles of acids and explosives, crucibles, mortars, moulds and furnace and considerable scrap iron.
